Wheels on the Sidewalks.

On Decoration day the Misses Julia Yockey and Tressie Linkenhelt were walking on Michigan street when a rider on a bicycle came along behind them and ran into Miss Linkenhelt knocking her down, but giving her no serious injuries. The bicycle rider was not only breaking the law but was inexcusably regardless of the welfare of others.

Small boys, and larger ones, on their wagons are becoming a menace to those walking on the sidewalks. Frequently they come along at top speed and one can only escape being run into by making a hasty leap from the sidewalk.

Enjoy Duluth.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bowell ill be glad to learn that they are thoroughly enjoying their home in Duluth. They particularly like the view of the boats as they enter and leave the port, which can be seen clearly from their front windows. Lois is having fine success with her cooking and the only cloud they have had to mar their happiness is a carbuncle on the neck which has been troubling Lloyd for some time.

Hurt His Foot.

Flint Helms, while running along the shore at Pretty Lake Thursday stepped on something which cut his foot quite badly. He with eight other boys had gone with Gerald Overmyer in the auto. The boys brought him to town where Dr. Preston took some stitches in the wound. The hurt is not serious but will keep its owner at home for a few days.

SURPRISE MR. RANDALL.

Teachers Give Farewell Party to Those of Their Number Who Will Not Return.

Thursday evening after school the Plymouth teachers, with plans aforethought, slipped into the Superintendent's office while he was not about. With speed and quiet they made some transformations there and sent for Mr. Randall. When he walked in he found tables set in dainty style. Twenty-five teachers sat down and were served by the Misses Langdon, Protsman and Southwick to a delicious luncheon consisting of strawberries, ice cream and cake. For the last course they had toasts, not dry.

The party was in the nature of a farewell to these teachers who will not return next year, and they were each given an opportunity to speak for themselves. Mr. McDowell acted as toast-master.

Miss Chesney made a witty response to the toast, "Matrimonial Prospects in the West."

Mr. Schell gave an illustrated talk on "What I Can Say in Two Minutes."

Mr. Harris toasted to a finish, "Our Departing Friends."

Mr. McKessen relieved his mind on the subject, "The Profession I am Leaving."

Miss Wilcox referred beautifully to "Pleasant Memories of Plymouth."

Mr. Randall's speech very nearly broke up the meeting, for there have been the most cordial and kindly relations between him and his fellow workers and his words of farewell were full of the sadness of parting.

Memorial.

To the officers and members of Miles H. Tibbitts Woman's Relief Corps No. 82—The committee submit the following memorial on the death of our sister member, Caroline Craig:

Another link in our fraternal chain has been broken. Another of our members has been taken from among us. The imperishable part has taken its flight, to try the realities of that undiscovered country, from whence no one has ever returned. We shall miss her. The chair she occupied as Press Correspondent, and which she filled so well, is vacant and draped in fond memory of her faithfulness and efficient work.

Resolved That we condole with the sorrowing friends in their bereavement; and while they mourn her as wife, mother and sister, we as a company of our fraternal order do wish to express our heartfelt sympathies for them in their great sorrow. We mourn her as a loyal, true friend of "The Veterans" and his dependent ones," and who had the respect and esteem of us all.

Resolved That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and that they be published in the Plymouth papers.

Special Service of Song.

The services next Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church will consist largely of sacred music which has been requested. The choir has been making special preparation for the occasion, which promises to be very enjoyable to all who attend. In connection with it the pastor will speak on "Christian Hymns as Literature."

On account of the baccalaureate services at night, there will be no service at the Presbyterian church, that those who desire may attend at the Methodist church. The Endeavor society, however, will meet at 6 o'clock for their service, adjourning in time to attend the other service.

Saved His Wife's Life.

"My Wife would have been in her grave today" writes O. H. Brown of Muscadine Ala. "if it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery. She was down in her bed, not able to get up without help. She had a severe bronchial trouble and a dreadful cough. I got her a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, and she soon began to mend, and was well in a short time." Infallible for coughs and colds, it's the most reliable remedy on earth for desperate lung trouble, hemorrhages, laryngitis, asthma, hay fever, croup and whooping cough. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Fred Wenzler.

Senior Class Troubles.

In spite of the threatening weather the members of the senior class were determined to carry out their plans for a picnic at Pretty Lake Friday. About ten o'clock they started on a hay rack in the usual style with well filled baskets.

As they approached Plum street their colors were seen to be suddenly lowered from the flag staff on the school building. The enthusiastic seniors lost no time in hurrying to the scene to protect their colors and ere long the flag was gaily floating, as before, above the triumphant party. The seniors guarded the place for some time but finally left, suspicious and very uneasy lest those "naughty juniors" might do something more.

Will Elect County Superintendent.

The trustees of the county will meet in the auditor's office on Monday and elect a county superintendent of schools for the next four years. The democrats have practically settled on Mr. Rizer of Bourbon as their candidate for the place and the republicans will present the name of the present officer, Mr. Steinebach. The trustees are divided politically five and five. Mr. Wolfe of West township has been very sick for some time and will not be able to attend the meeting. It was thought that he would have to have his arm amputated, but it is thought now that it will not be necessary.

Lightning Kills Few.

In 1906 lightning killed only 169 people in this whole country. One's chances of death by lightning are less than two in a million. The chance of death from liver, kidney or stomach trouble is vastly greater but not if Electric Bitters be used, as Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Ia., proved. Four doctors gave him up after eight months of suffering from virulent liver trouble and yellow jaundice. He was then completely cured by Electric Bitters. They're the best stomach, liver, nerve and kidney remedy and blood purifier on earth. Only 50c at Fred Wenzler's.

Occupies New Residence.

W. A. Hampton has just moved into his new residence at 814 West South street. His old residence further west he has sold to Jacob Cavender of Rutland, who will occupy it some time in September. Mr. Hampton has a fine house of eight rooms, with modern conveniences.

Sixteen Go to Rochester.

Sixteen ladies and gentlemen went to Rochester Thursday night to hear a Christian Science lecture of Frank H. Leonard of Brooklyn. They report a fine lecture and a good crowd.

Dr. Eikenberry's day is Friday of each week.

PROMOTION EXERCISES AT WEBSTER

FIGHT BETWEEN KING OF SCOTLAND AND OUTLAWED CHIEFTAIN ENDS PROGRAM OF 8th GRADERS.

LADY OF THE LAKE

Auditorium Filled To Overflowing and Many Turned Away—Music and Recitations Were Finely Given.

The Eighth Grade Promotion exercises at the Webster school auditorium last night ended in a fight. James Fitz-James, King of Scotland in disguise, vanquished the outlawed chieftain, Roderick Dhu, after a sword battle which wrought the audience up to a high pitch.

Erwin Haag as James Fitz-James and Chester Thompson as Dhu were the combatants and handled their swords in fencing in a style that would do credit to much older and more experienced persons. This combat was the last act in the play "Lady of the Lake," which was part two of the excellent program of the evening.

The auditorium was filled to overflowing and more than a hundred were turned away, the door being locked to prevent too great a jam. Although the evening was a delightful one, the room was oppressively hot on account of the crowd that pushed its way in, filling the seats and all the standing room.

The orchestra, the instrumental music and the solos were received with rounds of applause. Grace Miller was encoored on her singing of the "Japanese Maiden," and Lillian Hahn as also on her rendering of Poe's "The Raven." The audience seemed to think these two especially good. The recitation by Violet Sinzrey was also finely done.

The decorations were not elaborate, but the real trees and branches and other decorations. The play was well given throughout and was a splendid departure from the usual program on an occasion of this kind. The members of the class promoted are:

Oliver Ager, Helen Viola Amones, Charles Eugene Buck, Fanis Ottilia Chart, Arthur Mortland Cleveland, Glen Sylvester Cox, Grace Leona Curtis, Faye Marie Denney, Ruth Eva Davis, Elmer Albertus Fisher, Lillian Mary Hahn, Erwin Arthur Haag, Clotis Melvin Hammaker, Harry Fred Houghton, Carol Ione Humrichouser, Mary Winfield Johnson, Philip Long, Agnes May Massena, Mabel Fern Miller, Grace Ethel Milner, Evangeline Etta Dee Lillian Matthew, Nellie Myers, Estella Ira Phillips, Hazel Ruth Pomeroy, Hazel Jane Poor, Clyde Price, Ruth Rhinehart, Edna Gladys Ritter, Gail Bessie Roberts, Gladys Melita Shreve, Violet Lucille Sinzrey, Russell Losey Strang, Chester Harrison Thompson, Bertis Margaret Tomlinson, Edward Troutman, Alpha Leonore Van Camp, Gilbert Vinnal, Omer White, Lula May Williams, Walter Andrew Wise, Nina Pearl Zeiters.

A Peek Into His Pocket.

would show the box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve that E. S. Loper, a carpenter, of Marilla, N. Y. always carries. "I have never had a cut, wound, bruise, or sore it would not soon heal," he writes. Greatest healer of burns, boils, scalds, chapped hands and lips, fever-sores, skin eruptions, eczema, corns and piles. 25c. at Fred Wenzler's.

Suicide at Rochester.

Mrs. John Stallard committed suicide Thursday in her home at Rochester. She dressed herself in white, and lying down, shot herself. Mrs. Stallard was apparently in good health and all surroundings seemed without question. It came as a great shock to the people in general.

Attending Conference.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Shively left Saturday for St. Joseph, Mo. to attend the conference of the Brethren church.
